

Dydd Gwener 22 Mawrth

LI-To polish and publish a modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet.

One sunny, frustrating day the Montagues and Capulets carried on their battling about who had the best rides. The Montagues had rollercoasters and food shops for adults but the Capulets had kids rides, toy shops and cup cake shops along with adult rides for families. The Montagues and Capulets had been stealing money and swapping the names for the rides. This was another incident which so far included hiding the food, drinks and toys closing down rides and swapping, ripping adverts. This made everyone angry and tiered. This had been going on for thirty years and the security guard had got furious, frustrated and fuming. The security guard had tweeted every more fighting in the theme parks then trouble would be ahead in their lives.

As time passed, the Capulets held an 'Entertainer of the month' awards ceremony. It was in a royal restaurant with famous recipes, lavished with chandeliers and delightful senses. The victorious winner was revealed as Tybalt. Sneaking cautiously through a back open window, three disrespectful intruders, Romeo, Benvolio and Mercutio giggled at the revelation. A couple hours later the exciting awards ceremony turned into a romantic ball. All the gathered guests danced with their lovers. In the corner of the grand ball room there was a lonely soul waiting to be loved. Heart beating nervously but excited Romeo caught sight of this beautiful girl and strode over confidently. Suddenly they both knew that they were a match that was always meant to be. They had to get married right now.

A couple of hours later, the secret special wedding day arrived and Friar Lawrence married the perfect couple, Romeo and Juliet. Later that afternoon Romeo was strolling through the streets of Verona when all of a sudden Tybalt, Juliet's cousin yelled furiously, "You think that my winning the entertainer of the month was funny?" "Maybe but if your challenging me to a fight then I will not accept." he calmly replied Romeo. Slowly Romeo walked away. However Mercutio shouted, "I will accept you pest."

"Come on then give me a go only if you think your better than me.", Replied Tybalt. The two men fought. Heart stopping Mercutio's life was over. Upon hearing this terrible news Romeo raced rapidly back to Tybalt and ended his life in rage. The security guard of Verona banished Romeo from the town. ~~Meanwhile Juliet had rushed~~ of to Friar Lawrence after she had some life changing news; her parents were forcing her to marry that posh Paris Despreux to help Juliet. Friar Lawrence began thinking of a plan to keep the lovers together. As quick as a flash he came up with a solution. He put some sleeping milk in a cup of coffee. Secretly Friar Lawrence whispered, "Now if you drink this you'll appear dead for four hours."

"Please don't forget to tell Romeo this plan," replied Juliet.

He replied, "I promise Juliet I promise."

Juliet drank the coffee and drifted off to sleep.

The next day, Lord and Lady Capulet discovered Juliet did not awake for breakfast. Panicked, Lord and Lady Capulet rushed up the spiral shining stairs to Juliet's chamber. To their devastation, they saw their delicate daughter dead. They sobbed sorrowfully at the loss. Heart broken, they carried Juliet to the family cemetery. Rushing in the hedge, Romeo's personal assistant, Balthazar eavesdropped in this trembling news. Rushing off to tell this disastrous news, Balthazar cried, "If my lady is dead then so shall I be!" Meanwhile, Friar Lawrence was sat down with a strong feeling that there was something that he should have done.

Panting, Romeo arrived at the cemetery and his eyes burst into tears as he saw his wife lying there soulless. Sobbing, he kissed his lover for the last time. At that moment he drank the poison and fell to the floor regretting everything. Minutes later Juliet rose from her silent slumber.

All of a sudden she shattered to pieces from the sight of Romeo's lifeless body. She stretched for his dagger and forced it into her heart. The two tragic lovers were now united in heaven. Hours later, their bodies were discovered. The two families were connected from the loss of their youngest children. The security guard of Verona was unsympathetic and blamed the two families for the deaths, declaring, "For never was a story of more woe than that of Juliet and her Romeo."